

TRUTH OR TABLOID?

Answer the following questions in as much detail as possible. Remember to use structures and vocabulary adequate to the level.

- What magazines or newspapers do you usually buy?
- Do you believe everything you read on them?
- Do you think celebrity scandals help sell magazines and newspapers?
- Which magazines and newspapers print celebrity scandals in Spain?
- What scandals are in the news at the moment? Do you think they are true?
- How do you think it feels for celebrities to read false stories about themselves?

AGREE OR DISAGREE WITH THE FOLLOWING

- For celebrities, any publicity is good publicity- the more sensational the better.
- It is a newspaper editor's job to increase circulation, not to worry about the accuracy of every article they print.
- The public have a right to read articles about the private lives about famous people.
-

READ THIS ARTICLE AND COMMENT ON IT.

The sister of Spanish Crown Princess Letizia, it seems, is a celebrity whether she likes it or not.

A judge rejected a request from Telma Ortiz for a restraining order barring media outlets from filming her, arguing that she is a public figure despite her wishes

Ortiz, 35, had argued she was not a celebrity and said the media had invaded her privacy repeatedly

This week she sued about 50 news outlets in a case being heard in the central city of Toledo. The media organizations included major TV channels and gossip magazines such as Hola!

But Judge María Lourdes Pérez Padilla said a restraining order would be "legally unviable" because Ortiz and Martín Llop were in the limelight, even if they claimed otherwise.

The judge ordered them to pay undisclosed court costs.

Cristina Cabal Díaz