1.SOULMATES

This is a team game and it aims at practising the structures

- Both/Neither of them
- Both... and / neither...nor

Materials:

- 2 white cards with YES written on one side and NO on the other

PROCEDURE

1. Divide the class into two or three teams.
2. Ask the teams to select two people to play for them and take the “hot seats”. These two students will sit facing their team.
3. Decide which team starts the game by tossing a coin. Let’s say Team A starts the game.
4. Explain you’re going to give each of the two members of the team a white card with YES written on one side and NO on the other. Tell them you’re going to ask them 10 yes/no questions.
5. Their team will score a point every time these two students show the same answer to the questions asked, and the team provides a correct sentence containing the target structure.
6. Repeat procedure for Teams B and C and give a big applause to the winners.

Example 1.

- Teacher asks: Have you ever scored 10 out of 10 in an exam?
- Students A: YES      Students B: YES
- Team: Both of them have scored 10 out of 10 in an exam / Both Mary and Peter have scored 10 out of 10 in an exam (1 point)

Example 2.

- Teacher asks: Have you ever scored 10 out of 10 in an exam?
- Students A: NO    Students B: NO
- Team: Neither of them have/has scored 10 out of 10 in an exam / Neither Mary nor Peter has scored 10 out of 10 in an exam (1 point)

Example 3

- Teacher: Have you ever scored 10 out of 10 in an exam?
- Students A: YES    Students B: YES (0 points)
