

PAST SIMPLE/USED TO/WOULD

TO EXPRESS PAST HABITS/ROUTINES

- Simple Past= Used to

-What did people use(d) to do in the evenings before TV?

-What did people do in the evening before TV?

(Note: when questions and negatives are written, they often have did... used instead of did...use)

-I liked playing tennis when I was younger

-I used to like tennis when I was younger

Although both forms are used, we prefer used to+infinitive to talk about past habits which are now finished. There is an idea that circumstances have changed when we use the form used to+infinitive.

- Simple Past ≠ Used to

"Used to" refers to things that happened at an earlier stage of one's life and are now finished: there is an idea that circumstances have changed. It is not used simply to say what happened at a past time, or how long it took, or how many times it happened.

-I studied very hard last year (not ~~I used to study very hard last year~~)

(simple past to say what happened at a past time)

-I worked in La Felguera for 17 years (not ~~I used to work in La Felguera for 17 years~~)

(simple past to say how long)

-Mary went to London five times last year (not ~~Mary used to go to London five times last year~~)

(simple past to say how often)

- Used to= Would

Both can be used to refer to repeated actions and events in the past. Would sometimes suggests a feeling of nostalgia so is often used for personal reminiscences.

On winter days, we used to / would sit around the fire and tell stories
When I was a child, my sister used to /would take me to the cinema every Sunday.

- Used to ≠ Would

1. When we refer to a past state , we can only use "used to"

I used to have /~~would have~~ a Toyota Celica

Mary used to be /~~would be~~ a teacher but she's now retired
