

WORK VOCABULARY

Let's have a look at some work-related vocabulary:

PEOPLE to be self-employed freelancer entrepreneur a job hunter/seeker a full-timer a part-timer breadwinner staff personnel	JOBS A job opening A vacancy Job hunting The job market A recruitment agency/ employment office I (x) for a living (unpaid) internship/ work placement	POSITIVE ASPECTS To take maternity/parental leave To get a promotion To take early retirement To take a sabbatical
NEGATIVE ASPECTS To be laid off To be fired/sacked To be made redundant To be out of work Youth unemployment To resign To step down	MONEY To get the minimum wage To get unemployment benefits Stay on budget To get average monthly income To get fringe benefits To go bankrupt To pass on expenses Make/earn money Income Well-paid, poorly paid Base salary+commission The perks of ... Make the bare minimum	REQUIREMENTS Professional qualifications To meet deadline To oversee something Educational qualifications Delegate work to others Enthusiastic Dedicated
VERBS AND COLLOCATIONS To found a company To set up your own (start-up) company Some jobs have died out and others have emerged To troubleshoot problems To highlight your strengths	IDIOMS To learn the ropes The rat race To make ends meet To save for a rainy day	